Who is "Joycie"

Joycie Lege Broussard

Joycie was born to Percy "Kaplan" Lege and Zoie LeBlanc Lege who were tenant farmers on Coulee Kinney Road in Abbeville. She attended Abbeville High School and graduated with honors. Immediately after graduation, Joycie married James Curtis Broussard and moved to Venice, La. Since Curtis was in the oilfield for 45 years, they moved around for 17 years to different cities in Louisiana and then To Houston Texas until they came home in 1972 after Curtis' father died.

Joycie babysat everywhere they lived to help supplement their income. She operated her own day care center where they live now from 1994 to 2000. In 2000, her husband retired and they started traveling. They own a 5th wheel camper and belong to the Good Sam Organization. Curtis is President and Joycie is Secretary of the local Acadiana chapter. They also belong to the state chapter and staff, helping to organize Samborees for hundreds of campers twice a year. Joycie serves in public relations where she helps put on tours. She also belongs to Vermillion Volunteers for Family and Community, Inc. (VVFC), a woman's organization that works towards funding scholarships for girls and boys interested in education.

Joycie lives on a farm between Abbeville and Maurice where they raise cattle, only four miles from the farm where she was born and grew up. She and Curtis have six children, fifteen grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and are expecting three more.

Joycie is a Charter member of the Richelieu Leger Family Association and has been a member of the Reunion Committee since 2001. She is currently Co-chair and has been a board member since 2002. She currently serves as Secretary for the Association.

Joycie has graciously opened her home for every Annual Membership meeting that has not taken place at a reunion, as well as most of the Board of Directors meetings. Her contribution to the association has been greatly appreciated
